GOING TO SCHOOL IN INDIA

Going to School in India in the lake, on a bus, in the dark...

In this truly inspiring film, you will experience what it is like to go to school in India through the eyes and voices of children.

Going to School in India celebrates what school can be. Every school day, millions of children in India go to school by boat, by bicycle, by wheelchair or barefoot. Some classes are held in the blistering heat of the mud desert, in the chill of the mountains or at night under lamps. Meet these students who overcome their challenges -- all for the chance to learn. Based on the award winning book by Lisa Heydlauff. Grades K-5. Ages 5~12. Closed captioned. $29.95
