

Destinos: Introduction to Spanish DVD

"Viewers learn Spanish by listening to the conversations and associating the dialogue with the locale, action, facial expressions, and body language." -LA Times

A video instructional series in Spanish for college and high school classrooms and adult learners; 52 half-hour video programs divided into two parts (Part I programs 1-26, Part II programs 27-52) Destinos teaches speaking, listening, and comprehension skills in Spanish. This telenovela, or Spanish soap opera, immerses students in everyday situations with native speakers and introduces the cultures, accents, and dialects of Mexico, Spain, Argentina, and Puerto Rico. Understanding of Spanish and appreciation of many Hispanic cultures increase as students become absorbed in the mysterious and entertaining story. Closed captioning in Spanish can be used as a teaching and literacy resource. The series is also appropriate for teacher professional development.

Nuevos Destinos

The multimedia Nuevos Destinos expands the ways you can use the original Destinos story. Retelling the story of lawyer Raquel Rodriguez's original investigation within the framework of a new legal intrigue, Nuevos Destinos is designed for courses in which less video and a specific pedagogical focus are needed. Using the companion CD-ROM, students become Raquel's legal assistant. As they read letters and newspaper articles, receive phone calls, write email messages, and summarize documents, they become more comfortable speaking, listening to, and writing in Spanish.

These materials are useful for students in all of the following: intensive review and high beginner courses; intermediate grammar review courses; and intermediate courses in conversation and composition.
